

Code of Conduct

Each member of the State and Club Name of NACWC, Inc., must adhere to each code of conduct outlined below. Failure to adhere to but not limited to one code of conduct can result in suspension, probation, and/or dismissal of membership as determined by the National President, National 2nd Vice President, Regional President, and State President.

NACWC Mission Statement:

The National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc. are women of color dedicated to uplifting women, children, families, the home and the community through service, community education, scholarship assistance and the promotion of racial harmony among all people, so that those we serve are better able to take their proper and rightful place in society as citizens, community leaders, parents, and family members.

- I will not physically or verbally abuse any member of NACWC.
- I will demonstrate the objectives, values, mission, and motto of NACWC always.
- I will attend all required meetings and events: if for any reason I shall be late or absent, I will notify the club President and Vice Presidents as soon as I am aware.
- I will not slander nor tarnish the name of NACWC in any way, on any platform at any given time.
- I will be supportive and respectful of my federated sisters.
- I will not be unsisterly, negative, or intentionally petty to any members of the organization.
- I will not take part in any activities that will have a negative reflection upon myself or NACWC.
- I will not share NACWC confidential information with anyone that is not a member of the organization.
- I will actively participate in all club business as I am needed. This includes planning, setup, voting, execution, and all other matters of business where my active support is needed.
- I will report to the club President and body any unethical conduct that is considered disrespectful, harmful, or witness others treated unfairly.
- I will pay all required state, regional, and national dues to remain an active member.
- I will attend state, regional, and national conventions if I am available. Ten (10) active members must attend conventions for voting abilities. A club must have 10 members to receive a vote. Ten do not have to be present.
- I will not sell NACWC, Inc. items that include the use of the organization's name, logo, and motto. All NACWC members/non-members must be a licensed approved vendor if they plan to sell items featuring NACWC trademarks.
- I will not conduct business for profit with an unlicensed NACWC approved Vendor.

This code of conduct defines how all members of NACWC, Inc. shall act, conduct business, and uphold the organization's core values. By signing, you acknowledge and agree to adhere to all the above statements.

Print Name (Member): _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____